

LITANY OF HUMILITY

○ Jesus! Meek and humble of heart, hear me.
From the desire of being admired,

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being loved...
From the desire of being celebrated...
From the desire of being honored...
From the desire of being praised...
From the desire of being preferred to others...
From the desire of being consulted...
From the desire of being approved...
From the fear of being humiliated...
From the fear of being despised...
From the fear of being scolded...
From the fear of being wrongly accused...
From the fear of being forgotten...
From the fear of being made fun of...
From the fear of being wronged...
From the fear of being suspected...
That others may be loved more than I,

Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be admired more than I...
That, in the opinion of the world,
others may increase and I may decrease...
That others may be chosen and I set aside...
That others may be praised and I unnoticed...
That others may be preferred to me in everything...
That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should...

Amen
